

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 1, 2018

for more information, contact:

Eric Wall, 864.834.6199

ewall@bankoftravelersrest.com

BANK OF TRAVELERS REST ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT AND PROMOTIONS

Travelers Rest, South Carolina – Bank of Travelers Rest announces the retirement of Chuck Blankenship, Senior Vice President and Human Resource Manager. Blankenship has worked for the bank for 30 years. He was honored at a retirement celebration where he was presented the “35 Years in Banking” award given by the South Carolina Bankers’ Association. Blankenship is a 1975 graduate of Clemson University and began his career in banking at Southern Bank and Trust.

Kelley Moss has been promoted to Senior Vice President and Human Resource Manager. Moss began her career at Bank of Travelers Rest in 2001 and most recently working as Corporate Trainer. She is a graduate of Clemson University.

Bank of Travelers Rest promoted Amanda Banks to Vice President and Corporate Trainer. Banks has worked for Bank of Travelers Rest since 2010. Her most recent position was Branch Manager for the bank’s Greer location. Banks is a graduate of Clemson University and South Carolina Bankers’ School.

**###

Since 1946, Bank of Travelers Rest, Member FDIC, has served the people of Greenville County. Customers experience the conveniences of a full-service financial institution while enjoying the personalized service of their community bank. Bank of Travelers Rest serves the county through offices in Travelers Rest, Marietta, Taylors, Berea and in the City of Greenville. Because Bank of Travelers Rest understands the needs of customers go deeper than traditional service points and hours, additional service is offered through the Customer Support Center, ATMs, Online Banking, Mobile Banking and Saturday hours. At Bank of Travelers Rest, we’re banking in the places we call home.